“Got Fish?” & “Something’s Fishy!” February 2nd

Jackson, Miss. – The Mississippi Museum of Natural Science will host the annual “Got FISH?” fishing seminar program, moderated by Melvin Tingle, on February 2, 2008 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. followed by “Something’s Fishy”, offering fish-filled activities for the whole family until 3:00 p.m.

- 9:00 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.: Bass Seminar
- 10:10 a.m. to 11:10 a.m. State and Federal Agencies Fishing Opportunities
- 11:20 p.m. to 12:30 p.m. Crappie Seminar

“A group of successful anglers and biologists will answer questions concerning fish, fishing, fishing techniques, and they may even share the location of some secret fishing spots!” explains Aquatic Biologist Karen Dierolf. Members of the Jackson Bass Club and the Magnolia Crappie Club will be on hand to talk about lure selection and knot tying. Representatives from the Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks will answer questions concerning license requirements and regulations.

“Plus, we invite you to bring the whole family to “Something’s Fishy” from noon to 3 p.m. for behind the scenes tours of the Museum aquariums, interactive fish feedings with SCUBA divers at 12:30 and 2 p.m., and fun for everybody,” says Museum Director Libby Hartfield.

Museum admission fees are $5.00 for adults, $4.00 for senior citizens and $3.00 for children. Call 601.354.7303 for details. The museum is located at 2148 Riverside Drive in Jackson.
