

4th Annual “Back to Nature” Photography Contest

Contest Description:

This photography contest is designed to encourage museum visitors to venture out and capture the natural beauty of the wildlife and habitats seen on the grounds of the Mississippi Museum of Natural Science and along the trails of Lefleur’s Bluff State Park. Contestants are also allowed to enter photos that have been taken inside the museum. Winning contestants will receive awards and their photographs will be exhibited for all museum visitors to see. To officially enter this contest, contestants must submit photography that has been taken on Museum or Lefleur’s Bluff State Park property, or inside the Museum between February 2nd, 2012 to February 1st, 2013.

Cost of Entry: Adult - $5.00 for every 2 photos entered (which helps to cover the cost of awards & exhibit setup)

Youth - $2 for each photo entry

Term:

The “Back to Nature” Photography Contest begins February 2nd, 2012 and ends on February 1st, 2013. Winners will be announced March 31st, 2013, and winning photos will be exhibited in the Museum during the spring of 2013. Photo entries become the property of the Mississippi Museum of Natural Science and will not be returned.
